

MAKEUP BY BODYOGRAPHY

After carving out a mutually adoring relationship with Pussycat Doll Ashley Roberts, Bodyography was the first choice for makeup for the PCD lingerie launch.

Roberts is a massive fan of the Bodyography products, having had her makeup done by the creative team several times and loving the result!

This time it was the Australia's Next Top Model girls' turn to be converted. After their first Bodyography experience a few nights earlier at the Australian Hair Fashion Awards, Lola, Adele, Rebecca and were thrilled to try their new favourite products again!

New Bodyography devotees were born that night, with Laura Dundovic, Gracie Otto and the burlesque dancers positively glowing with signature Bodyography radiance.

The burlesque theme of the night was translated into a sex-kittenish makeup look that screamed old-world glamour.

The focal point of the look was a screen-siren inspired, three-dimensional red lip was created with Bodyography's Red China lipstick, and Dual Icon Lip Gloss in Scarlet.
